

Teacher of Girls' PE

Job type Permanent, full-time
Start date September 2024
Apply by 17 May 2024

Hampton Court House is an award-winning independent co-educational day school for ages 2 – 18, educating children and young people from pre-nursery to Year 13. The majority of our 300+ pupils elect to stay on to complete their full education with us, enjoying high levels of academic success in their GCSEs and A levels, and at Oxbridge and Russell Group university entry.

Together with deep academic rigour, we strive to lay the foundation of a lifelong love of learning, and it is important to us that children enjoy being here and look forward to coming to school. Our non-uniform parkland campus, in which staff and pupils alike are addressed on a first-name basis, cultivates an atmosphere in which our pupils can explore their curiosity, individuality and style with taste and discretion.

We seek an excellent teacher of girls' Physical Education to join this successful and dynamic department from September 2024. This post would ideally suit an Early Career Teacher (ECT).

We are looking for someone with:

- A passion for educating, inspiring and understanding children and teenagers;
- A passion for sport, and excellent subject knowledge;
- A love of learning and a commitment to continued professional development;
- A fascination with the many varied and different methods of challenging and inspiring children and teenagers both inside the classroom and outside;
- A desire to participate actively in the life of a busy and ambitious school;
- A belief that every pupil can succeed beyond their expectations;
- A sense of adventure as well as a sense of humour; and
- An interest in the peoples, cultures and languages of the world.

The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching girls' PE and sport across the school, up to Year 11 (including GCSE). The role will report to the Head of Sport.

The postholder will be also expected to:

- Run several co-curricular sports club throughout the school year;
- Organise and attend sports fixtures throughout the school year;
- Support the Head of Sport in planning and co-ordinating the use of off-site facilities;
- Participate in range of enriching, sport-focused trips and visits throughout the school year;
- Be a form tutor to a small form group;
- Attend parents' evenings
- Other reasonable duties as directed by the Senior Leadership Team.

Hampton Court House offers its own competitive salary scale.

Applications are welcomed from colleagues in both the independent and state-maintained sectors. Due to the large number of applications the School receives, please be aware that only shortlisted candidates will be contacted to be invited for an interview. We have the right to appoint a suitable candidate before the closing date. Please note that we are unable to accept applications unless they are made on our own application form.

Hampton Court House is committed to safeguarding the welfare of children. The School is registered with the DBS and successful applicants will be required to successfully complete the Disclosure procedure at the Enhanced level. As part of the recruitment process a check of candidates' information that is available in the public domain will be carried out. It is an offence for a person barred from working with children to apply for this post. Hampton Court House is committed to Equal Opportunities and strives to achieve inclusivity and diversity within our community. Therefore, we welcome applications from all sections of the community.
