

Teacher of Prep

Job type	Permanent, full-time
Start date	September 2024
Apply by	30 April 2024

Hampton Court House is an award-winning independent co-educational day school for ages 2 – 18, educating children and young people from pre-nursery to Year 13. The majority of our 300+ pupils elect to stay on to complete their full education with us, enjoying high levels of academic success in their GCSEs and A levels, and at Oxbridge and Russell Group university entry.

Together with deep academic rigour, we strive to lay the foundation of a lifelong love of learning, and it is important to us that children enjoy being here and look forward to coming to school. Our non-uniform parkland campus, in which staff and pupils alike are addressed on a first-name basis, cultivates an atmosphere in which our pupils can explore their curiosity, individuality and style with taste and discretion.

We seek a passionate, energetic and qualified Prep teacher from September 2024.

We are looking for someone with:

- A passion for educating, inspiring and understanding children
- A love of learning and a commitment to continued professional development
- A fascination with the many varied and different methods of challenging and inspiring children both inside the classroom and outside
- A desire to participate actively in the life of a busy and ambitious school
- A belief that every child can succeed beyond their expectations
- A sense of adventure as well as a sense of humour
- An interest in the people, cultures and languages of the world

The role will report to the Head of Prep and would suit an ECT.

All our teachers are expected to contribute enthusiastically to the wider life of the school including running lunchtime and after school clubs, leading motivating assemblies, and organising meaningful workshops and trips.
